
High School Words: Card for Grade 10 (List 1) atrocious: a. shockingly brutal or cruel; exceptionally bad or displeasing automation: n. act or process of converting the controlling of a machine or device to a more automatic system, such as computer or electronic controls bane: n. something causes misery or death; curse; fatal injury or ruin bauble: n. small, showy ornament of little value; child's plaything or toy befall: v. happen, occur, or be the case in the course of events or by chance auditory: a. of or relating to hearing, the organs of hearing, or the sense of hearing axiom: n. self-evident truth requiring no proof banter: n. good-humored, playful conversation bedlam: n. a state of extreme confusion and disorder; pejorative terms for an insane asylum belated: a. having been delayed; done or sent too late